

December 14, 1923 April 13, 2011

Noemi Caro, of Clermont, Florida (Lake County)

Died on Wednesday, April 13, 2011 at 8:45 P.M. of multiple causes.

Living with (NPH) Normal Hydrocephalus Noemi fought a great fight for over 30 years. She is survived by her loving husband Luis, Sister Celenia, Son Carlos, Daughters Belinda & Grace, Grandchildren Carlos, Bryan, Michael, Kimberly, Angela, Melissa, Natalie, and Lauren.

Great Grandchildren Makayla, Tyler, Sofia, Lindsey, Ethan, Clayton.

Her sisters Yolanda, and Rita preceded her in death.

Noemi was born in Alajuela, Costa Rica and was a Naturalized U.S. Citizen that moved to Paterson, New Jersey after raising her children in Booklyn, Maryland. Prior to living in Brooklyn she served as a soldiers wife in the U.S Army with tours in Fort Clayton, Panama, Wiesbaden, Germany, and throughout Europe. Noemi loved God, Country, and Her Family.

Noemi would love to be remembered by random acts of kindness to others in her memory.

Noemi's Funeral Mass will be held

Saturday, May 7, 2011 at 11:00 AM

Family, Caregivers, and Friends are invited to attend

Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church

720 12th Street, Clermont, FL, 34711

Arrangements under the direction of Brown Funeral Home and Crematory, Lecanto, Florida

352-795-0111

Noemi's Memorial Service will be held Sunday, May 8, 2011 at 4:30 P.M.

Saint Anthony's Catholic Church

901 N.E. 2nd Street

Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301

Phone: 954-463-4614

A Burial at Sea is Planned with The Neptune Society , Sunday, May 8, 2011 at 5:00 P.M.

Memorial will be in the NEPTUNE REEF

<http://www.neptunesociety.com/memorial-reef/videos/>

Located 3.25 miles east of Key Biscayne in Miami, Florida – GPS coordinates N25° 42.036', W80° 05.409' – Neptune Memorial Reef TM is the largest man-made reef ever conceived.